Liturgy of Prayerful Remembrance, 16th. November

As I wrote in the newsletter two weeks ago, it is a long-established Catholic custom, which the Church encourages, to pray for the dead, especially during the month of November. The Liturgy of Prayerful Remembrance (at 4 p.m. on Sunday, 16th. November) is a way of helping us to do this. It is an opportunity for the whole parish community to come together to remember, honour and pray for the dead. We will pray especially for those who have died in the last twelve months or so.

The Liturgy of Prayerful Remembrance is a custom which Father Peter Foulkes began in about 1990 when he was parish priest of St. Augustine's in Preston. It was something which I greatly appreciated during the three years I was there with him and which I continued after he left. It is a simple, reflective and prayerful Liturgy and people seem to have found it to be a moving and comforting occasion. Please come and pray for our loved ones who have died. Father Michael

St. Mary's Primary School

For those who were not here last weekend, we publish a statement from Mr. Andrew Cafferkey, the chair of governors at St. Mary's school, which was read out at the end of Mass: "Following a rigorous selection process, the Governors are delighted to announce the appointment of Mrs. Ann Kowalska as the permanent headteacher of St. Mary's Catholic Primary School. Mrs. Kowalska is currently the deputy headteacher at St. Teresa's in Cleveleys and will be joining St. Mary's in January, 2015. Whilst her main post is at St. Teresa's, in recent years, she has been supporting the work of staff at St. John Vianney's in Blackpool and St. Cuthbert's in South Shore, Blackpool. During this half-term, she will be liaising with governors and Miss Anne Wolstenholme, the current acting headteacher, so as to ensure a smooth transition.

Parish Property Matters – an update!

As things stand, painting of the railings will begin early in the New Year. If one of their proposed projects were to be cancelled, then the team would come sooner. Meanwhile, we need to employ some ironmongers to make some repairs to the railings. If you can suggest any local firms to advise and give us some quotations, I would be glad to hear from you. Father Michael

Next Sunday's Gospel for the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time (16th November)

Matthew 15 : 14-30 a story about talents

It is encouraging to think of all the talents which friends and neighbours have and which I don't have. It is all part of the gifts of the Spirit, which Paul sees as making up the whole Body of Christ. Everyone has a special contribution to make. As for me, it is extraordinary that God created me with all my twists, defects, fears and failures and it is precisely because of those boils, sores, abscesses that God loves me, helps me and guides me to work out my salvation. And it is just possible that there may be friends who can think that God has given me talents which make a tiny contribution to the happiness and goodness of the world. In the longer version of this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus mentions a man with just one talent who hides it in the ground: the master calls him "wicked and lazy" and has him thrown out. Why is he so severely treated? This is surely someone who resolutely turns his (or her) back on the goodness she (or he) has received and refuses to work with it for the Lord's purposes or for anyone else's. Such a talent goes to waste and merely rusts and corrupts. If I know anyone like that, it is just worth asking whether, with infinite and patient kindness, I can help that person to release their talent and bring it to blossom.

Just think for a moment: what is your best talent? Is it a gift, skill or humour which brings joy and happiness to those around you? Are you like the man who buried his talent in the ground, or do you use this skill or gift or wisdom to bring joy to others?
