First Sunday of Advent 30th November, 2014

The Breaking of Bread

As we know from chapter two of the Acts of the Apostles, the "breaking of bread" is the oldest name we have for what we now call "the Mass" or the "Holy Eucharist".

In their excellent document, Celebrating the Mass, the Bishops of England and Wales have this to say about the "breaking of bread": "The action of 'fraction' or 'breaking' of the bread which, in apostolic times, gave its name to the Holy Eucharist, will bring out more clearly the force and importance of the sign of unity of all (the faithful) in the one bread and of the sign of charity if one bread is distributed among all the congregation."

Following the Bishops' guidelines, we will soon be using larger altar breads for the celebration of Mass. This will enable the bread at Mass to be more clearly seen by everyone, especially when it has been consecrated and the priest holds up the Body of Christ for everyone to look at and adore. It will also express more fully the action of "breaking" or "fraction" and probably be closer to the action of Jesus himself at the Last Supper. (c.f the communion hymn: This is my Body, broken for you.)

A new Liturgical Year begins

Please note that this Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent. This is the beginning of a new Church year, the year of Mark (year B), when we concentrate, for the most part, on reading the Gospel of St. Mark. "Advent has a two-fold character for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and, likewise, is a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Christ's Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight." (Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, n. 39)

Next Sunday's Gospel for the Second Sunday of Advent (7th December)

Mark 1 : 1-8 Baptism for Conversion

Each Advent has two 'John the Baptist' Sundays: the first when we see John preparing a community for the Messiah, the second when he points out Jesus as the Lamb of God. Today, is the first of these. John chose a point where the busy road from Jerusalem to the East crossed the Jordan River. There, he button-holed all the busy financiers, merchants and other travellers and tourists, warning them to change their ways - and to change them now, before it was too late. 'I am too busy,' no doubt they said. 'I have other things to worry about; I have a wife and family to feed.' John was forming a community of repentance; but not so much a community which wept 'Boo-hoo!' about their sins, as a community of people determined to set their scale of values right. He meant them to stop going in one direction, to turn round and go in a different direction - towards God. Do we give ourselves a moment to pause and ask whether we have our priorities right? Where on that list of priorities does the entry of Christ into our lives come?

John expected Jesus to baptise with fire. Does that mean burning something away? Or warming something up? Or a shining light? What does your baptism mean to you?

Parish Property Matters – an update!

As I have said previously, painting of the railings will begin early in the New Year. If one of their proposed projects were to be cancelled, then the team would come sooner. I have had some quotations but would really appreciate it, if you have experience in this area, if someone could advise me about the best way forward. I look forward to hearing from you. Thank you. Father Michael
