wish you all the continued blessings of this joyful Eastertide!

Holiday to the Villa Palazzola, 6th to 13th June, 2016

I have booked to take a group out to the Villa Palazzola, a little to the south of Rome in the Alban Hills, in 2016 for a holiday. The setting is beautiful and relaxing and there are opportunities to explore the local area as well as to go down into Rome for a day. I have now advertised this with those people who have travelled with us before and places are going quickly. I need to confirm the numbers for this holiday by the end of June so, if you are interested, please pick up the leaflet at the back of church and fill in the booking form as soon as possible, putting it through the presbytery door along with a deposit of £250 to secure your place. You can go to the website: www.palazzola.it to find out more about this beautiful place.

Please give them to Michael or Bill or put them in the slot at the back of church. Thank you.

Next Sunday's Gospel for the Sixth Sunday of Easter (17th. May)

John 15 : 9-17 loving like God

Like so many of the great discourses of Jesus in the gospel of John, today's reading is not a shorthand record of Jesus' words but will have been written up after the event. Most probably, there were several slightly different versions of what Jesus said at the Last Supper. In any case, one can see that the author has in mind two different contexts: Jesus' own historical situation at the Last Supper and the situation of the early Church, where the disciples are being tested hard in their mission. They need encouraging by Jesus' own example of his sacrifice and by his promise of real friendship; they are friends, not servants, specially chosen by Jesus to bear fruit that will last. So we, too, are welcomed as friends, chosen and commissioned by Jesus to go out and bear fruit but reminded that we must be prepared to pay the price. There is no fruit without pruning. Jesus had just given the example of service by washing the feet of his disciples. If we are to share the joy of Jesus, we must be ready to join him also in laying down our lives for our friends.
