Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

10th July 2016

In Christ you draw near to us, God of mercy and compassion, lifting us out of death, binding up our wounds, and nursing our spirits back to health.

Let such a tenderness as yours compel us to go and do likewise.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD - Next Sunday's Gospel

Read The Gospel for Sunday 17th July 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 10: 38-42 Martha and Mary

Reflect After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

Martha and Mary have become classic figures in the Church representing two different styles of life, the active and the contemplative vocation, an active apostolate or a life of prayer. Carried to an extreme, this opposition is, of course, merely silly. No active apostolate can thrive unless it grows out of a life of prayer, for we cannot draw others to the knowledge and love of a God whom we do not ourselves know and love. Nor can a life of prayer be genuine unless it leads to care for others and concern for the salvation of all those whom the Lord loves. Even a strictly enclosed community cannot claim to be a part of Christ's body unless its fabric is one of love and concern for all the members, and especially those in need, the elderly, the sick and the young. In fact, Jesus does not present any such choice between two different religious ways of life. His speech is always in terms of absolutes. He does not use comparatives; he says that Mary has chosen not 'the better' (as our translation has it) but 'the good' part (as the Greek has it). Any 'good' life must be founded on listening devotedly to the Lord and responding to what we have heard.

How important a part does listening to the Lord play in my life as a Christian?
? Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Tram Sunday 17th July Can we please appeal for helpers on this day as it is a large fund raiser for the Parish and any monies raised will be going to provide the flowers for the Flower Festival to be held in August 2017. Help will be needed for preparing sandwiches etc from 8 am in the House and then for helping throughout the day with the catering. Cake Bakers – your cakes are extraordinary and so we ask for your help again. Cakes can be brought to the house from 8am. There will also be a Book Stall. Any paper backs or CDs can be brought to church from next Sunday. Gentlemen – your help is needed with setting up the chairs and tables after the 8-20 Mass and with clearing away about 4pm. We need all the help we can muster on the day. Will YOU please help? There is a revised list for the 10:30 Eucharistic Ministers only as an error was made on the original list. Anyone with a Red Box that needs emptying, please bring to church after the Masses in July. Thank You
