Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will only say what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

New Eucharistic Ministers - Don't forget to email Anne with your email address, so the process of DBS can be speedier. Those who don't use computers may still complete the process on paper. Thank you.

A CONCERT will take place in St. Wulstan's Church on Friday 20th May at 7 p.m. It features Organist Adrian Earnshaw and St. Wulstan's Choir, guest soloists (including Naomi Lynch) and St. Wulstan's Primary School. There will be a collection for the Foodbank and MacMillan Cancer Care.

Many members of our community have a Red Box in their homes. It's a way we support Missio, the Pope's official charity for overseas mission, and the Mill Hill Missionaries, Britain's own missionary society. Thank you to everyone who is a Red Box member. Information is at the back of church. Audrey Armour and Anne Duxbury are the representatives.

Please take a copy of the History of St. Mary's which are at the back of church and read it through for any alterations you might like to consider
