ACT IN SUPPORT OF CATHOLIC EDUCATION: Do you support Catholic schools and the right of Catholics to send their children to them? Then we need you to make your voice heard. The Government is making a critical decision on whether to overturn the admissions cap which prevents new Catholic schools from allowing all Catholic pupils to attend. The Prime Minister has acknowledged that this policy discriminates against Catholics and had promised to abandon it. Now the Government may decide to keep this discriminatory policy in place instead of removing it. We need you to tell the Government not to discriminate against Catholics and to remove the admissions cap on new faith-based schools.

Visit: <http://catholicnews.org.uk/education-cap> to write to the Government and urge them to drop their policy which bans new Catholic schools.

150th Anniversary Mass: Thank you to everyone who celebrated last Friday's Mass with the Bishop. Several people have said to me that it was a very beautiful Mass. Thank you especially to Anita and Paula and the Year 6 children who read, to the servers and to the Folk Group. Thank you also for the wonderful gâteau and cake afterwards in the Millennium Room. Fr. Peter Burns from Sacred Heart, Thornton, rang later to apologise for not making it, as did Fr. Billy Bootle, who set off, but got snarled up in traffic in Blackpool. Finally, thank you to Tony Whiteside who, with Geraldine Rawcliffe, arranged the flowers, cooked the Bishop's tea and played the organ! A man of many talents!

First Sunday of Advent

3rd December 2017

Rend the heavens and come down, O God of all ages!

Rouse us from sleep, deliver us from our heedless ways, and form us into a watchful people, that, at the advent of your Son, he may find us doing what is right, mindful of all you command.

Grant this through him whose coming is certain, whose day draws near: your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD - Next Sunday's Gospel

Read The Gospel for Sunday 10th December "Baptism for Conversion" (Mark 1:1-8)

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

Each Advent has two 'John the Baptist' Sundays: the first when we see John preparing a community for the Messiah, the second when he points out Jesus as the Lamb of God. Today is the first of these. John chose a point where the busy road from Jerusalem to the East crossed the Jordan River. There he button-holed all the busy financiers, merchants and other travellers and tourists, warning them to change their ways - and to change them now, before it was too late. 'I am too busy,' no doubt they said. 'I have other things to worry about; I have a wife and family to feed.' John was forming a community of repentance; but not so much a community which wept 'Boo-hoo!' about their sins, as a community of people determined to set their scale of values right. He meant them to stop going in one direction, to turn round and go in a different direction - towards God. Do we give ourselves a moment to pause and ask whether we have our priorities right? Where on that list of priorities does the entry of Christ into our lives come? John expected Jesus to baptise with fire. Does that mean burning something away? Or warming something up? Or a shining light? What does your baptism mean to you?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB
