Second Sunday of Advent

10th December 2017

With tender comfort and transforming power you come into our midst, O God of mercy and might.

Make ready a way in the wilderness, clear a straight path in our hearts, and form us into a repentant people, that the advent of our Son may find us watchful and eager for the glory he reveals.

Grant this through him whose coming is certain, whose day draws near: your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

ACT IN SUPPORT OF CATHOLIC EDUCATION: Do you support Catholic schools and the right of Catholics to send their children to them? Then we need you to make your voice heard. The Government is making a critical decision on whether to overturn the admissions cap which prevents new Catholic schools from allowing all Catholic pupils to attend. The Prime Minister has acknowledged that this policy discriminates against Catholics and had promised to abandon it. Now the Government may decide to keep this discriminatory policy in place instead of removing it. We need you to tell the Government not to discriminate against Catholics and to remove the admissions cap on new faith-based schools.

Visit: <http://catholicnews.org.uk/education-cap> to write to the Government and urge them to drop their policy which bans new Catholic schools.

150th Anniversary Mass: Thank you to everyone who celebrated last Friday's Mass with the Bishop. Several people have said to me that it was a very beautiful Mass. Thank you especially to Anita and Paula and the Year 6 children who read, to the servers and to the Folk Group.

Thank you also for the wonderful gateau and cake afterwards in the Millennium Room. Fr. Peter Burns from Sacred Heart, Thornton, rang later to apologise for not making it, as did Fr. Billy Bootle, who set off, but got snarled up in traffic in Blackpool. Finally, thank you to Tony Whiteside who, with Geraldine Rawcliffe, arranged the flowers, cooked the Bishop's tea and played the organ!
A man of many talents!

THE WORD AHEAD - Next Sunday's Gospel

Read The Gospel for Sunday 17th December "A Voice Crying in the Wilderness" (John 1: 6-8, 19-28)

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

So, John the Baptist came as a witness to the light. In today's gospel reading he seems rather to refuse witness. He is quite negative, answering with a stalwart and repeated 'No!'. He witnesses only that 'There is one standing among you whom you do not know'. It is not always easy to find Jesus. All the way through the Gospel of John there are misunderstandings about Jesus; people fail to recognise him for what he is: there's the Samaritan at the well, Nicodemus in the night, Mary Magdalene beside the empty tomb, even Peter and the disciples as they fish on the Lake. We can easily become so wrapped up in our own troubles and worries that we fail to recognise the one figure who can provide the solution to them, although he is standing among us, the one who 'has the words of eternal life'. He may come to us in a way we do not like, as a corrective - blocking or diverting the way we have chosen. He may come as suffering, disappointment, failure or bereavement. All of these may be acts of God's love, to show us the way, though we cannot see it at the time. It is just like John the Baptist, saying steadily 'No!', until eventually we turn around and see Christ as our true light.

How can I find Jesus in the crowded events of my busy life? He often comes in unexpected ways. Is he in the quiet voice of a friend? Is he in the anger of someone I have annoyed? Is he in the rebuke of someone who knows me better than I know myself? Is he in my failures and frustrations?
