150th Anniversary Celebrations.

Our next event continuing the celebration of our anniversary is a concert given by The Fylde Concert Orchestra. It is an evening of light and popular music including Showtunes and Jazz. Tickets are £5 which are available as you leave church or you can pay at the door on the evening. There will of course be the usual raffle and if you are able to provide a prize it will be most welcome. Please do come and support this evening as it promises to be a most enjoyable evening. Refreshments will also be provided. Why not invite family and friends?

Congratulations to Colin Geddes and Kaylie Stockell who were married here yesterday

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

17th September 2017

O God, most high, you are slow to anger and rich in compassion.

THE WORD AHEAD - Next Sunday's Gospel

Read The Gospel for Sunday 24th September (Matthew 20:1-16)
The Generosity of God

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

It is hard not to sympathize with the workers who have sweated it out right through the day in the hot sun. The idlers who have hardly got earth on their spades or grease on their hands get a great bonus and I get no bonus at all! Is this fair? No. God is not fair. You can't apply the concept of "fairness" to God at all. We can't enter into a reckoning with God. God does not calculate as we do. In the terms of this world, this is obvious enough. The wicked do prosper, while honesty and high moral standards, instead of being rewarded are often simply mocked. Can we go deeper and say that the reward is in heaven? This hardly fits with the way Jesus worked here on earth. He did not reward the virtuous. He said he was the doctor who had come to the sick. His favourites were the worst of society, tax-collectors and prostitutes, not even amiable rascals. Heaven was open to anyone who accepted him. It is no good looking for fairness in God, for this implies that we deserve something. We cannot claim to deserve anything; we are simply called into a loving relationship and to put our trust in Jesus.

What does this Sunday's Gospel say about the generosity of God? When have you experienced God's generosity, his kindness and forgiveness in your own life?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB
