Key holders – there is a list at the back of church. Please complete if you hold church keys – insurance purposes.

Safeguarding - checks are now required every 3 years. Sheila and Anne will be contacting you about this. Much of the form completion can be carried out online – don't worry if you can't, paper forms are still available. Hopefully we shall be able to complete much of the photocopying required after Sunday Masses.

Judith would like to thank her cleaning team, and the extras who turned up to help. “Many hands made lighter work”.

Red Mill Hill Mission boxes. Please bring these to Sunday Mass in January if they require emptying. Thank you.

Does anyone know the whereabouts of the hand held vacuum cleaner, normally kept in the store room?

The Holy Family

31st December 2017

O. God, you cradle us at the beginning of life and embrace us at our journey's end, for you love us as your own.

Bind our families together and deepen our faith, that, like the Holy Family of Nazareth, we may grow in wisdom, obedient to your word.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, in the splendour of eternal light, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD - Next Sunday's Gospel

Read The Gospel for Sunday 7th January "Wise Man from the East" (Matthew 2:1-12)

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

The Wise Men, with their clever knowledge of astronomy and their lavish gifts, represent all that is best in worldly values. They also have a bit of magic about them, for frankincense and myrrh were used in spells, and the word for 'wise men' can also mean 'magicians'. In this case, the Wise Men have real wisdom and its reward, and all the respect and fame due to a 'magus' and yet they lay it all at Jesus' feet. It might be worth asking at this beginning of the year whether we submit all our skills and comforts to Jesus as the Wise Men did. The story also rests on the sharp contrast between King Herod and the Wise Men. Herod was a Jew, so he should have recognised and honoured the Jewish Messiah. Not at all! He tried to kill the Messiah. By contrast, the Wise Men, arriving from what for us would be the equivalent of outer space, carry on their search till they find Jesus and humbly bow before him. This poses a nasty question: we Christians have all the guidance and encouragement of the Church, but how often do we find those outside the Church, not even professed Christians, behaving in a more Christian way than we do ourselves!

What skill, what gift may I place before Jesus today?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB
