God of the living, in whose image we have been formed with imperishable life as our destiny, dispel from your people the fear of death and awaken within us the faith that saves.

Bid us rise from the death of sin to take our place in the new creation.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday's Gospel

Read - The Gospel for Sunday 8th July (Mark 6:1-6) A Prophet Despised in His Own Country.

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

The very last sentence of the reading speaks of the people's lack of faith. What was this lack of faith? They recognized in Jesus an extraordinary wisdom and the power to perform miracles, but this seems not to have been enough. What more was needed? Faith is not the acceptance of a set of propositions ('I believe that the earth circles the sun', etc.). It is putting all my trust in God as my only hope. Abraham, the model of faith, went out into the desert, leaving everything on which he relied, everything that made him what he was. He even trusted God to get him out of the unbearable fix when God told him to sacrifice his only son. The townsfolk of Nazareth presumably thought they knew Jesus through and through. They were prepared to acknowledge his wisdom and his miracles. But they were not prepared to go further and see that God was at work in him, that he was the manifestation of God among them. It is all very well to admire Jesus, to think him a fine teacher and a heroic, honourable man, who gave everything for his high ideals; but unless we see God in him, the divine transcendence of all that is human, he cannot work the miracle of taking us to himself.

What does it mean to you to describe yourself or someone else as "a person of faith"?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Diary

There will be a retiring collection for "Apostleship of the Sea" next Sunday - 8th July.

After evening Mass on Tuesday 3rd July (around 7:30p.m.), there will be a meeting to plan Tram Sunday (July 15th) at St. Mary's. New ideas and new support are most welcome.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS: Some while ago we asked for more volunteers to be Ministers of the Eucharist. Julia Brown, Elaine Porteous and Geoff Stubbs volunteered. A session to help them prepare for this important ministry has been arranged for 7.00 p.m. on Wednesday, 11th July, in the Millennium Room. ALL present ministers who would like a bit of a "refresher" are most welcome to attend.
