Fr. Michael's 40th Anniversary of Ordination

As some of you know, on Sunday, 22nd July, I will be celebrating the 40th Anniversary of my Ordination as a priest in my home parish of St. Wulstan's here in Fleetwood. I'd like to have a simple celebration, i.e. Mass as usual at 10:30 a.m. followed by a buffet lunch in St. Mary's School. The celebration will conclude with Evening Prayer, Adoration and Benediction at the earlier time of 3.00p.m.

Is anyone free at 5.00pm on 21st July to help put out tables and chairs in the school ready for Fr Michael's celebration the following day?

MASS OF BLESSED EDWARD BAMBER Our Annual Mass in Honour of the Martyr Blessed Edward Bamber will take place on Tuesday, 17th July at 6.30 pm at St. Winifride's House, Low Moor Road, Bispham, celebrated by Bishop Paul Swarbrick and our local clergy. All parishioners are very welcome to join us for Mass followed by light refreshments.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

8th July 2018

God of the prophets, in every age you send the word of truth, familiar yet new, a sign of contradiction.

Let us not be counted among those who lack faith, but give us the vision to see Christ in our midst and to welcome your saving word.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday’s Gospel

Read - The Gospel for Sunday 15th July

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

The instructions for missionaries are shaped by the urgency of the Kingdom. The Twelve are to travel light for speed. They should wear sandals rather than go barefoot, also for speed and security. They are to rely for their provisions on the welcome they receive and, if they are unwelcome, they should not waste time on those who reject them. Did Jesus think that the Kingdom or Kingship of God would finally burst on the world in his own time, that there was so little time to spare? In one way it did – at his death and Resurrection, which fulfilled God’s plan and restored us to friendship with God. In another way the Kingdom is still in the future: the reign of peace and justice is not yet established. There is still sorrow, distress, enmity, fraud, jealousy and plenty of other evils which fracture God’s Kingship. We are still imperfect reflections of the light of Christ, still pilgrim members of a pilgrim Church. Our efforts are often feeble, even when we try to walk in Christ’s footsteps. We cannot sit back complacently, any more than the missionaries of Jesus’ own time. The task of establishing the Kingdom is still imminent.

How can we missionaries best bring Christ’s light and God’s joy to the world?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Diary

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS: Some while ago we asked for more volunteers to be Ministers of the Eucharist. Julia Brown, Elaine Porteous and Geoff Stubbs volunteered. A session to help them prepare for this important ministry has been arranged for 7.00 p.m. on Wednesday, 11th July, in the Millennium Room. ALL present ministers who would like a bit of a “refresher” are most welcome to attend.

The Pastoral Parish Council has decided that there will not be a Christmas Fair this year. Instead, elements of the Christmas fair will be incorporated into different events throughout the year, including the SUMMER BBQ to be held after 10.30 Mass on 9th September. New Faces to help man stalls would be most appreciated and constructive comments would be welcomed.
