The Most Holy Trinity

27th May 2018

Quiz Night: - Many thanks to everyone who organised and ran last Friday's Quiz Night, especially Anya and Tony and the Morgan family. Thank you also to Barbara and Andrew for the delicious Hot Pot and to Anya for the "scrummy" apple pie. Thank you to everyone who attended and supported the event. It was a really enjoyable evening and £382.00 was raised for the Lourdes Youth Fund. Thank you everyone!

TRANSPORT TO CHURCH :

- a) Would you be able to offer a lift to Church (& home again!) to people who don't drive and are, perhaps, finding it increasingly difficult to walk to Church? If so, please sign up on the list in the Church porch. Thank you.
- b) Would you appreciate someone giving you a lift to Church on a Sunday? If so, please sign the list at the back of Church remembering to indicate which Mass you come to. Thank you.

God our Father, you have given us a share in the life that is yours with your Son and the Holy Spirit.

Strengthen that life within your Church, that we may know your presence, observe your commands, and proclaim the gospel to every nation.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

*The original Old Testament covenant was sealed by a death and by the sharing of the blood between God (signified by the altar) and his people as a sign of new life (see today’s first reading). Israel broke that covenant by persistently refusing to keep true to the way of life which the covenant enshrined. Now Jesus’ new covenant engages us in a new alliance and gives us new life. The story told in this reading is the warranty and guarantee that, each time we receive the Body and Blood of Christ, we are bound anew into his covenant. The story is told in almost exactly similar terms in each of the first three gospels and in Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians. It must have been learnt and repeated by heart. There is just enough difference to show that Mark and Matthew reflect the tradition of the Hebrew communities, while Paul and Luke reflect the tradition of the Greek-speaking communities. This narrative must have been repeated again and again from the very first years of Christianity. Each time we repeat these words ‘This is my body. This is my blood’, we are entering again into Jesus’ covenant. There should be a health warning. The Mass is a serious business: are you ready to commit yourself to the Kingdom, to engage in a new and personal alliance with Christ and to live your life in Him?

What obligations do we take on by receiving the Eucharist?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB
