THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday’s Gospel

Read –The Gospel for Sunday 19th May (John 13:31-35) The Commandment of Love

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr. Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

From now until Pentecost the readings from St John’s Gospel are taken from the great final teaching of Jesus at the Last Supper about the future of his Church and his disciples. From the sayings of Jesus the evangelist has composed a great discourse of Jesus about the obligations, duties and dangers which will come upon his disciples after his own death and resurrection. There were probably slightly different versions of this discourse, which were handed down by word of mouth; the impression of repetition in the discourse probably results from the evangelist recording three versions one after another. As we approach the Birth of the Church at Pentecost we need to listen to how Jesus envisaged his community. Today’s reading gives the essentials. At the head of the Christian community stands the glorified Son of Man, in whom God is glorified. But this Son is no distant figurehead, for he will come to be present among his disciples. How will this happen? Answer: in the love which his disciples show for one another. One is reminded of the legend about the aged St John, wheeled into the church at Ephesus. When asked for the message of Jesus, all he would say was, ‘My little children, love one another.’

How has Jesus shown his love for us? How do you show that same love for someone else?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB
