POSTER IN THE PORCH

Did you know?... CAFOD believes in a world where no one is beyond reach of the love and care they need to thrive. In the last year, your support has moved us a step closer to that goal. Thanks to our supporters in England and Wales CAFOD has been able to reach hundreds of thousands of women, men and children in need of help. With your donations along with matched funding from the UK Government CAFOD has already been able to provide 217,693 people in Uganda, Democratic Republic of Congo and Zimbabwe with access to safe, sustainable water. We will reach 330,000 people by the end of the programme. Thank you for your support.

Family Fast day was 4th October - please return your donation envelopes

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

13th October 2019

O God, our life, our health, our salvation, look with mercy on your people. Stir up in us a saving faith, that believing, we may be healed, and being healed, we may worthily give you thanks.

We ask his through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday’s Gospel

Read –The Gospel for Sunday 20th October (Luke 18: 1-8) The Answer to Prayer
After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr. Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

++++
We often think of prayer as mere asking, and this parable encourages us to pester God as the wronged widow pestered the Unjust Judge. But that is only one aspect of Luke’s teaching on prayer. He also shows us what our attitude in prayer should be in the parable which immediately follows today’s passage from the gospel: the parable of the Pharisee and the Tax-Collector. The tax-collector wins approval because he just stands there, admitting his sins. Most instructive, however, is Luke’s teaching on Jesus at prayer: he reminds us that Jesus is always quietly at prayer to his Father. He needs to slip away to spend the night in prayer. Especially he prays at the most important moments of his life: at his Baptism, when he chooses his team of disciples, before he teaches them to pray, at the approach of his Passion, finally forgiving and comforting others at his death. Paul tells us we should pray continually. The prayer of asking must be built on a relationship of love and dependence, just as the request of child to parents is built on their loving relationship. It does not matter if the child is at times naughty; the deep relationship between parent and child is one of love. So too we do not need to be perfect to make our requests to our Father.

When and how do you find it best to pray?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Diary –

Next Sunday – World Mission Sunday – envelopes at the back of Church.

Red Mill Hill boxes will be emptied during October. Please bring them on a Sunday only. Please hand them in and not leave them at the back of church. They will be handed back to the holder and not left at the back of church, as two empty boxes went missing at the last collection.

Matthew Cowell would like to invite new singers and musicians to join St. Mary’s Music group.
