Sixth Sunday of Easter

26th May 2019

Great and loving Father, your will for us in Jesus is the peace the world cannot give; your abiding gift is the Advocate he promised.

Calm all troubled hearts, dispel every fear. Keep us steadfast in love and faithful to your word, that we may always be your dwelling place.

Grant this through Jesus Christ, the first-born from the dead, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday's Gospel

Read –The Gospel for Sunday 2nd June (John 17:20-26)

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr. Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

The final chapter of Jesus's sayings at the Last supper is a prayer which both gives meaning to the sacrifice which Jesus is about to make and at the same time is a meditation on the Lord's Prayer. In today's portion Jesus speaks to his Father (also 'Our Father') with that perfect love which he will express most fully in his acceptance of torture and death on the cross. The story of the Crucifixion is not a story of rejection, but is the story of the most perfect union of Father and Son in love and willing obedience. It will make the Name, that is the love, of the Father fully known ('Hallowed be thy Name'). It will also grant Jesus that 'glory which he had before the foundation of the world' (Thy Kingdom come). But the kingdom is not complete without those who believe in Jesus and belong to him. The completion of the Kingdom is the work of the Spirit which is to come upon the Church at Pentecost. The story of its completion is, with all its twist and turns, its failures, its chastisements and its recoveries, the history of the Church. Which petition of the Lord's Prayer is most important to you?

Did you know? ... whilst archbishop of San Salvador until his assassination in 1980, St Oscar Romero used radio to speak out against government brutality. During a time of heavy press censorship CAFOD, through your help, was able to support St Oscar Romero's radio broadcasts regarding the truth about life in El Salvador. Radio is a reliable source of real-life information, which can and does save lives and it does not require you to be literate to use it. It is only with your continuing support that CAFOD and its partners are still able to give a voice to the voiceless in places such as Kenya, Guatemala and El Salvador by the use of radio.
