Miscellaneous items available: During the last twelve months, I have been trying to go through all the rooms and most of the drawers in the presbytery. In the course of this, I have come across four medals of St. Maria Goretti. Two of them are in good condition. The other two have a small relic on the reverse side. If you would like one, please let me know. Also available is a four-drawer, good quality, metal filing cabinet which is surplus to requirements. It is in good condition, contains some files but, unfortunately, does not have a key. If you can make use of it, please let me know as soon as possible. Otherwise, it will be disposed of. Left at the back of church recently was a full set for Holy Communion in the home. It comprises a tray, crucifix, candle sticks, candles, etc. Again, if you would like it, please let me know. Father Michael

Holiday at the Villa Palazzola, 6th. to 13th. June, 2016

I have booked to take a group out to the Villa Palazzola, a little to the south of Rome in the Alban Hills, in 2016 for a holiday. The setting is beautiful and relaxing and there are opportunities to explore the local area as well as to go down into Rome for a day. I am giving parishioners of St. Mary's the first opportunity to book their places for a returnable deposit of £50. Please pick up the leaflet at the back of church to book your place or go to the website: www.palazzola.it to find out more about this beautiful place.

Celebration of the Word with Children

This is the more accurate term for what is often called "Children's Liturgy". Whatever you call it, this is a very important and valued part of our Sunday worship. It provides the opportunity for the children at Sunday Mass to reflect on the Sunday scripture readings and to pray at a level appropriate to them. At a brief meeting, earlier this year, with the present team of people involved in this important ministry, I was asked to appeal for more volunteers to help with it. Most of the people involved have been doing it for a long time. Some are no longer able to do it and gaps are appearing when it is not possible to celebrate it. Please think about becoming involved. You will not be left on your own but will work with others who are experienced. As stated elsewhere in this newsletter, in September, Simon Stewart is giving a two-part series here on this subject. This is a golden opportunity to find out more without committing yourself!

Read next Sunday's Gospel for the Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time (7th. September)

Matthew 18 : 15-20 Reconciliation

The Church has had to be selective as we work through the Gospel of Matthew for this year's readings. In this eighteenth chapter of Matthew on relationships within the community, it is striking that the Church has chosen this passage to put before us. The first part is all about sorting out disputes and about forgiveness. Despite the presence of Christ in the Christian community, there are going to be disagreements and misunderstandings in every church and every family. The vital thing is to sort them out and not to let them fester. So here we are given a safe process to do this. Just after today's passage, Jesus underlines his teaching here when he says that we have to forgive not just seven times (the perfect number) but seventy-seven times. That means again and again and again, without limit. Christ also reminds us that he is present always in his community. The same promise is given at the beginning (the name Emmanuel means 'God with us') and at the end of the gospel ('I am with you to the end of time'). Therefore, the decisions of the community will be considered binding in the sight of God. It is especially striking that the same pledge (of binding and loosing) is made with the Church here as had earlier been made with Peter himself; Peter, on his own, exercises the authority of the Church.

How may we best put this process of reconciliation described by Jesus into practice?
