Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time 19th October, 2014

Praying for the Dead

It is a long-established Catholic custom to pray, especially during the month of November, for our relatives and friends who have died. On Remembrance Sunday, we pray especially for all who have died in conflicts and wars, especially the two world wars.

Christians have prayed for the dead from our earliest times. It is a tradition that stretches back into the Old Testament, as we can see from the Second Book of Maccabees: "Therefore, Judas Maccabees made atonement for the dead that they might be delivered from their sin." (II Macc. 12 : 45)

Church teaching encourages the practice of honouring and praying for the dead: "And so, from the beginning, the Church has honoured the memory of the dead and offered prayers in intercession for them, above all, in the Eucharistic Sacrifice." (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

As last year, the November Book of Remembrance will be placed near the altar throughout the month. Next Sunday, the Book of Remembrance, with some of this year's additions, will be available at the back of church. Please check that the relatives and friends whom you wish to be prayed for have been included. Write the names of any who are missing on the list which will be provided.

After discussion with the Parish Pastoral Council, it was suggested that a Liturgy of Prayerful Remembrance be celebrated on Sunday, 16th November at 4 p.m. This is an opportunity for the whole parish community to come together to remember, honour and pray for our dead. We will try to pray by name for those who have died in the last twelve months or so. I will be personally inviting the families of those people whose funerals have taken place in St. Mary's during the last year.

The Liturgy itself will, hopefully, be simple, reflective and a source of comfort and hope for people who are grieving.

Anniversaries of Death

In an effort to bring our list of anniversaries up-to-date, I would be grateful if you could let me have the names of any relatives, friends, etc. who have died in the last two years and give me their dates of death. The names of these people will be added to the anniversaries list and to the Book of the Dead for November prayers. Time is getting short!!

Holiday at the Villa Palazzola, 6th to 13th. June, 2016

I have booked to take a group out to the Villa Palazzola, a little to the south of Rome in the Alban Hills, in 2016 for a holiday. The setting is beautiful and relaxing and there are opportunities to explore the local area as well as to go down into Rome for a day. I am giving parishioners of St. Mary's the first opportunity to book their places for a returnable deposit of £50. Please pick up the leaflet at the back of church to book your place or go to the website: www.palazzola.it to find out more about this beautiful place.

for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (26th. October)

Matthew 22 : 34-40 the Greatest Commandment

Familiarity with Jesus' answer to the question about the greatest commandment blunts our awareness of its startling directness. Many answers could be given, perhaps singling out any one of the ten commandments as the greatest, the most important basis of society. A frequent answer to the question was and is the Golden Rule which exists in many cultures: 'Do not do to another what you would not have done to you'. This is basically a selfish answer, protecting one's own interests. By contrast, Jesus' answer hits home, turning us away from self to God. 'Love' (not 'obey' or 'adore' or 'fear' or 'reverence') is the command. Love is not simply the warmth of companionship or of sex, but is the willing generosity of mother to helpless young child or daughter to helpless old parent, of wife to alcoholic husband or husband to paralysed wife, seeking no reward but the happiness of the receiver. Paul gives a useful check-list about love in chapter 13 of his first letter to the Corinthians. John's first letter provides a useful summary: 'No one who fails to love the brother or sister whom he can see, can love God whom he has not seen'.

How do we put into practice this commandment to love?

A.P.F. Red Mission Boxes

Thank you to those who asked to have a mission box at the recent appeal by Father Frank of the Mill Hill Missionaries. Peggie Ball has decided to step down as the organiser for the parish and Anne Duxbury has volunteered (well, her arm has been twisted) to take over Peggie's job as Secretary. All box holders are asked if, from this month, mission boxes be brought to church to be emptied every four months: that is in October, January, April and July. Anne Duxbury will empty them after the 8.30 a.m. Mass and Audrey Armour will empty them after the 10.30a.m. Mass.
