Feast of the Baptism of the Lord 11th January, 2015

Christmas 2014/2015

Last Sunday, we completed the celebration of the Feast of Christmas by celebrating the Feast of the Epiphany or Manifestation of Christ. In Jesus, God's promise, originally made to Abraham and his descendants, has been revealed to all the peoples of the world. Today, we conclude the Season of Christmas with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. At his Baptism, Jesus is manifested or revealed as God's Son, the Beloved, on whom God's favour rests. Next Sunday, John the Baptist reveals Jesus as the Lamb of God while Simon and Andrew realise that he is the Messiah.

At the end of this Christmas season and at the beginning of this New Year, we thank God for Jesus, the Lord of all people, God's Beloved Son, who is the Lamb of God and the world's Messiah.

I thank God for all of you and for your goodness and kindness to me. Thank you for all the cards and greetings I received at Christmas and for your presents and generosity. God bless you all in this coming year.

Thank you also to everyone who contributed to the Christmas liturgies: welcomers, musicians, singers, readers, collectors, ministers of the Holy Eucharist and servers. We thank everyone who cleaned and prepared the church, put up banners and arranged the beautiful floral displays. May the joy of Christmas inspire us and bring us peace in the coming months!

Red Mission Boxes

Please note, Anne Duxbury & Audrey Armour will be collecting the boxes after Sunday Masses in January. Please remember to bring them to church with you.

St. Mary's Primary School

Welcome to Mrs. Ann Kowalska who started last Monday as headteacher of our school. We hope that her arrival will mark the beginning of a more stable period in the life of our school. We pray that our school will be both happy and successful in the coming years. Please continue to keep St. Mary's in your thoughts and prayers as the Governors endeavour to appoint a new Deputy Headteacher.

Next Sunday's Gospel

for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (18th January)

John 1 : 35-42 the First Disciples

This year, the ordinary Sunday gospel readings are taken from Mark and this provides us with a full picture of that gospel. But Mark is the shortest of the gospels and is not quite long enough so, just occasionally, a reading from John slips in to enrich our understanding of the meaning of Jesus' words and actions. Today's story is about the call of the first disciples and takes place in the Jordan valley where John was baptising. The first two to be called are disciples of John, so they had already joined his group who were waiting for the Messiah. They were ready when John pointed him out. It is striking that Jesus first calls them to be with him and that they remain with him for a time. In our call to follow Christ, first comes prayer and getting to know him before we can actively work for Christ and bring others to share his joy. Only after this repose with the Lord do the disciples sprint off in their enthusiasm and bring others to join in the benefits they have received from that tranquillity and refreshment which comes from keeping company with Jesus.

What is God calling you to do?
