Chris Reynolds

Those of you who come to celebrate Mass on weekdays may remember a student from the Nautical College called Chris, who was a regular worshipper here in St Mary's. When I first arrived Chris used to come to see me fairly regularly because he was trying to discern what God was calling him to do with his life. Then he kind of "disappeared." I always intended to try his mobile, but never quite got round to it! Last Tuesday I received a letter from him.

In his letter he thanks me for my help and support and says he will always cherish his memories of St Mary's. He has now left the Merchant Navy and on the 1st May he became a postulant for the Redemptorist Fathers and entered St Mary's Monastery at Clapham in South West London.

Please remember Chris in your Prayers. Please pray also for more people who will be willing to answer God's call to the priesthood and religious life.

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time 14 June 2015

A Prayer for the COMING WEEK

O God, at whose command the seeds sprout and shoots grow to their full height, hear the prayers of your assembled people.

Make us trust in you. May we pray with confidence and wait for your kingdom as it grows in our midst.

We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, who lives, and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Gospel for Sunday 21th June 2015
Mark 4:35-41: Jesus Calms the Storm

Reflect

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

Jesus certainly seems to have chosen a pretty dim and unappreciative group of disciples. They do call him 'Master', but after all the wonders he has performed they still don't really trust him, and have no hesitation about addressing him rudely and brusquely. Did you think, 'Just like me'? Well, perhaps I am just as untrusting. We often behave as though Jesus were quietly snoozing, quite unconcerned about our troubles and worries, as we struggle hopelessly, up to our necks in the mud and sinking rapidly. However, once Jesus' attention has been roused, once the disciples have put their trust in him, he effortlessly remedies the situation. This incident is the climax of a series of wonders, when we see Jesus' authority gradually increasing. First he imperiously called the disciples and they followed. Then he taught authoritatively in the synagogue as no other had ever taught. Next he had the effrontery to forgive sins, as only God can do. Now he controls the elements. Only God controls the wind and the waves, as in the psalms God 'walks on the backs of the waves'. The disciples are awe-struck; they react with astonishment. But, just like me too, they soon forget again and are surprised when Jesus comes to their rescue.

What are the qualities required of a disciple of Christ? Why did Jesus choose such an unappreciative bunch?

The Stolen Holy Water Bucket, Sprinkler and Volume of the Lectionary for Children

As many of you will know from "The Weekly News", the above items were stolen from the front of the church, possibly on the Easter Bank Holiday Monday. To replace the holy water bucket and sprinkler has cost £410.27. (Ouch!). I did try to purchase replacements from a firm that was slightly cheaper, Vanpoules, but they are out of stock and couldn't say when they would have any more. So I had to go for the slightly more expensive option. If anyone would like to make a contribution towards this cost, your help would be very welcome.

As regards the volume of the beautifully bound and illustrated children's lectionary, this has turned out to be irreplaceable as it is out of print.

Thank you for the donations we have received so far. Your kindness is very much appreciated. Any further contributions will be very welcome.
