PLEASE SEE FURTHER INFORMATION

Safeguarding Rechecks Anyone who was cleared for Eucharistic Ministry or Children's Liturgy before June 2013 is required to be rechecked by the Diocesan Safeguarding Office. The easier way is by computer and requires little effort, just numbers and dates to enter into boxes. If you don't use a computer, perhaps a friend or family member would help. The older, slower paper check is still available. Sheila Donnelly and I shall be contacting people soon for rechecks (probably in groups of 4) to save confusion (Mine!) Anne Duxbury

Please bring Red Mill Hill Mission boxes to church for emptying in July.

Thank you, Audrey & Anne

THE WORD AHEAD - Next Sunday's Gospel

Read The Gospel for Sunday 10th July 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 10: 25-27 The Good Samaritan

Reflect After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

*To many a Jew at the time of Jesus the hatred of the Samaritans was such that a Good Samaritan was a contradiction in terms. It is striking that Luke changes the dialogue about the two commandments. In Mark's and Matthew's accounts Jesus answers the question about the commandments, while in Luke Jesus challenges the questioner, who then himself gives the right answer. It is also striking that, in his reply at the very end, the lawyer, despite Jesus' praise of him, cannot bring himself to pronounce the hated name, 'Samaritan', and says 'the one who...'. The conscientious dilemma of the priest and the Levite reveals a dry humour within this story: if the huddled traveller turns out to be dead, they will incur corpse-defilement and be unable to perform their sacred duties! This legal difficulty makes the Samaritan's attentive generosity all the more poignant, for a Samaritan is free of any such hang-ups. Love shown to the unfortunate and the down-trodden is a major theme in Luke's Gospel. But note also the Samaritan's careful administration of his funds: he gives not a blank cheque but two days' wages, which he will supplement on his return if necessary! What is the main point of Jesus' story? Is it to be generous or not to be judgmental?
