Today we welcome Cyprian Blamires will appeal at both Masses on behalf of the St. Barnabas Society. There will be a retiring collection for the work of the Society. Please be your usual generous selves. Thank you.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION MASS

This was a simple, but prayerful, celebration of Mass. We thank Jackie and Judith for the careful and kind way they prepared the children and to everyone else who contributed. We pray that the children will experience ever more fully the love of Jesus in their lives.

Monday, 6th June - In the small hours 20 of us will be departing for a week's holiday (with a day of Year of Mercy pilgrimage thrown in!) at the Villa Palazzola. We will think of you! We will also pray for you all, especially at Mass next Sunday.

5th June 2016

O God, our very breath, our only hope, in every age you take pity on us and bring forth life from death. Visit your people and raise your church to new life, that we may join with all generations in voicing our wonder and praise.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

Luke 7:36-8.3 The Woman who was a Sinner

*This is a story of devotion and repentance, but a story also of the welcome of and hospitality given to Jesus. He does not rebuke the sinner or interrogate her. He sets no pre-conditions, demands no promise of improvement. The details of her sin are unimportant to him; the heartfelt repentance is all that matters. Of all the evangelists Luke especially stores up stories of the return of sinners: the Prodigal Son, the Pharisee and the Tax-Collector at Prayer, Zacchaeus, the Good Thief and the story of this woman too. To Matthew's story of Joy at the Man's Found Sheep Luke adds the story of Joy at the Woman's Found Coin (typically adding an example using a woman as well as a man). In contrast with Jesus and the woman stands the host at the dinnerparty, Simon the Pharisee. Simon is not evil, but is a stickler for the observance of the Law, and is judgmental of others. However, Jesus is attentive to Simon as well: he gives him a question he can answer so that Jesus can affirm him; then Jesus points out Simon's shortcomings, then gently but firmly offering to Simon too the opportunity for repentance. Who shows the most love in this story, and how? Do you, like Simon, find it too easy to judge others and hard to forgive?
