Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

26th June 2016

Sovereign God, ruler of our hearts,
You call us to obedience
And sustain us in freedom.
Keep us true to the way of your Son,
That we may leave behind all that hinders us
And, with eyes fixed on him,
Walk surely in the path of your kingdom.

THE WORD AHEAD - Next Sunday's Gospel

Read The Gospel for Sunday 3rd July 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 10: 1-9 The Mission in Action

Reflect After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

The instructions to the seventy-two who are sent out are direct and simple. They are really sent out like lambs among wolves, without food, without distractions, without baggage, without spares. The version in the Gospel of Mark allows them sandals, presumably to enable them to make more speed on their journey, for the urgency of the task is paramount. They are not to be distracted by picking and choosing their accommodation or their food. Direct, too, is their method: to impart the blessing of peace and to heal. No second chance: if the blessing is rejected, away they go, leaving the town to a fate worse than that of Sodom! Last Sunday's gospel demanded an uncompromisingly whole-hearted response to Jesus from the apostles. This Sunday the apostles demand the same response to their own message. Again the absolute demands of Jesus! There is a wonderful simplicity about this message of the coming of the Kingdom: all that is involved is peace and healing. No squabbles, no fripperies, no complications of doctrine. If these Kingdom values can remain the focus of our Christian vision, we may make some progress towards bringing the Kingdom of God to reality in our own surroundings.

What would you say are the most important aspects of the Kingdom? What sort of healing can I bring in my own surroundings? Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Tram Sunday 17th July Can we please appeal for helpers on this day as it is a large fund raiser for the Parish and any monies raised will be going to provide the flowers for the Flower Festival to be held in August 2017. Help will be needed for preparing sandwiches etc from 8 am in the House and then for helping throughout the day with the catering. Cake Bakers – your cakes are extraordinary and so we ask for your help again. Cakes can be brought to the house from 8am. There will also be a Book Stall. Any paper backs or CDs can be brought to church from next Sunday. Gentlemen – your help is needed with setting up the chairs and tables after the 8-20 Mass and with clearing away about 4pm. We need all the help we can muster on the day. Will YOU please help?
