The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

3rd June 2018

God ever faithful, you have made a covenant with your people in the gift of your Son, who offered his body and poured out his blood for us all.

As we celebrate this eucharistic sacrifice, build up your Church by deepening within us the life of your covenant and by opening our hearts to those in need.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

The first stage of Jesus’ ministry comes to an end. He is rejected as ‘out of his mind’ by his own family. Then he is rejected by the scribes as being in league with Beelzebul. Finally, his family again arrive, looking for him, and he turns to those who are listening to him as his true family. This all leads into the Parable of the Sower, which seems to be Jesus’ reflection on his rejection by most people, and his fruitful acceptance by a small number of disciples. It is, of course, significant that the scribes cannot deny that he drives out evil spirits. If even his enemies are forced to admit it, it must be true. The best they can do is sarcastically to ascribe his powers to the chief of evil spirits, here named ‘Beelzebub’ or ‘Beelzebul’ (two different versions of the text). The former name means ‘lord of the flies’, probably a mocking corruption of the latter, which means ‘lord prince’, the title of a local deity. The whole scene presents an agonizing picture of the isolation of Jesus. In Luke’s version of the scene, by a very slight adjustment, Jesus’ mother and brothers are the prime example of those who hear the word of God and keep it.

Did Jesus feel disappointment and isolation as we do?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB
