Pentecost

20th May 2018

Send down, O God, upon your people the flame of your Holy Spirit, and fill with the abundance of your sevenfold gift the Church you brought forth from your Son's pierced side.

May your life-giving Spirit lend fire to our witness. Send forth to the nations of the world to proclaim with boldness your wondrous work of raising Christ to your right hand.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD - Next Sunday's Gospel

Read The Gospel for Sunday 27th May "Baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:16-20)

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.
On a superficial level this gospel reading seems chosen because of the trinitarian baptismal formula. It is the only time this formula comes in the scripture, and it is remarkable that the trinitarian liturgical formula was already developed while the New Testament was being written. At a deeper level this reading of the final five verses of Matthew gives a wonderful trinitarian view of the work of salvation. The words of the Risen Christ, 'all authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me', are reminiscent of the vision of the exalted Son of Man in Daniel, who comes to the One of Great Age, seated on his throne, and receives from him all power on earth. Only Christ receives all power in heaven too, as 'the Son of God in power'. In this power he sends out his disciples, promising his divine presence always. The promise of Christ's divine presence in his Church now (delivered at the end of Matthew's gospel) balances the promise at the beginning of the gospel when the angel declares that the name of the child to be born to Mary is Emmanuel: Emmanuel means 'God with us'. So the permanent presence of Christ is the message of the whole gospel.
