1st September 2019

God and judge of all, you show us that the way to your kingdom is through humility and service.

Keep us true to the path of justice and give us the reward promised to those who make a place for the rejected and the poor.

We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday’s Gospel

Read –The Gospel for Sunday 8th September (Luke 14:25-33).

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr. Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

Jesus does not pull his punches, and here delivers a series of devastating body-blows to anyone who is looking for easy discipleship. All through this journey which culminates in Jesus’ own death at Jerusalem the cost of discipleship has been a recurrent theme: ‘Let the dead bury their dead’ (13th Sunday), the Parable of the Rich Fool (18th Sunday), ‘From one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded’ (19th Sunday), ‘Father against son, son against father’ (20th Sunday), and now ‘Hate father and mother’ and ‘Give up all your possessions’. A certain amount of the vigour of these demands may be attributed to a Semitic (Hebrew/Aramaic) mode of expression (they would often use superlatives and rarely use comparatives), but there is no doubt about the absolute demands made on the disciple.

When Jesus made these demands he knew what lay ahead of him, and was only asking his disciples to follow his own course. We must count the cost before beginning to build the tower. Most of us have, of course, already started to build the tower by responding to Jesus’ call. There is no turning back from the plough (13th Sunday); only pray for a courage and loyalty which exceed our own powers.

Why does Jesus use such fierce language? What is the hardest thing about trying to be a disciple of Christ? Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB
