THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday’s Gospel

Read –The Gospel for Sunday 10th November (Luke 20:27-38) The Sadducees’ Riddle

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr. Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

++++
Since they did not believe in the resurrection or any sort of life after death, the Sadducees are trying to make fun of Jesus. By the Levirate Law of Judaism, if I marry and die without begetting a son, my nearest male relative is bound to marry my widow and raise up a son in my name to carry on my line. The Sadducees’ neat mockery is to ask what happens if this is repeated seven times (and worse than that, for the perfect number ‘seven’ means ‘ad infinitum’). Jesus, again with typical neatness, turns their argument back upon them by returning to that key text of scripture when God replies to Moses at the Burning Bush. Not only is this reply in the present tense, ‘I am (still) the God of patriarchs long dead’, but it is the fundamental text which guarantees God’s rescue and protection of, and his presence with, his people through thick and thin. This is one more instance of Jesus’ deep knowledge and mastery of scripture, of the way that he can transcend the flippant and superficial arguments of his opponents and make plain the deep and true sense of these holy texts. To God no one is ‘dead and gone’; we all remain safe in his hands.

What does it mean to you to be a ‘child’ of the resurrection?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

NOVEMBER REMEMBRANCE

During this month of November the Church encourages us to remember all our departed family, relatives and friends and to pray for their eternal rest – “Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen”

The work of “Tools with a mission” is to collect tools, and sewing machines, manual only, to service and refurbish them, sort them into trade kits and send them across the world for livelihood creation. We send around 20 containers filled with over 300 tonnes of tools every year. If you have any tools or a manual sewing machine you would like to donate, please contact Father Christopher Webb OBE on 07775 694702 or 01253 273895 or chris.webb1953@hotmail.co and I will collect them at your convenience. Thank you
