SURVIVE-MIVA is a Catholic Lay Association and United Kingdom Registered Charity. It was founded in Liverpool in 1974 to provide vital transport for healthcare and pastoral work in areas of great need in Africa, Asia and South America.

All funds (which are voluntary donations from generous sponsors) are used to provide grants for all types of transport, eg bicycles, mopeds, 4-wheel drive ambulances, outboard motors, etc. It is the people on the ground who know what best suits the local conditions.

At both Masses next Sunday, Mr John Hartley will be appealing for the work of SURVIVE-MIVA. Please give generously to the retiring collection as you leave Church. Thank you!

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

25th August 2019

To the banquet of your kingdom, O God of the nations, you have invited people of every race and tongue.

May all who are called to a place at your table come, by the narrow way, to the unending feast of life.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday’s Gospel

Read –The Gospel for Sunday 1st September (Luke 14:1. 7-14).

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr. Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

On a sabbath day Jesus had gone for a meal to the house of one of the leading Pharisees; and they watched him closely. He then told the guests a parable, because he had noticed how they picked the places of honour. He said this, “When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take your seat in the place of honour. A more distinguished person than you may have been invited, and the person who invited you both may come and say, ‘Give up your place to this man.’ And then, to your embarrassment, you would have to go and take the lowest place. No; when you are a guest, make your way to the lowest place and sit there, so that, when your host comes, he may say, ‘My friend, move up higher.’ In that way, everyone with you at the table will see you honoured. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the man who humbles himself will be exalted.” Then he said to his host, “When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not ask your friends, brothers, relations or rich neighbours, for fear they repay your courtesy by inviting you in return. No; when you have a party, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; that they cannot pay you back means that you are fortunate, because repayment will be made to you when the virtuous rise again.”
Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Diary - Homemade cakes will be for sale after both Masses on Sunday 8th September (Our Lady’s Birthday).

Confirmation – If there are any adults or young people who have never been confirmed and wish to be confirmed, please give your name and contact details in writing to Fr. Michael. N.B. – I do not propose to ask Bishop Paul to celebrate the sacrament when he comes on Visitation in September, but I will liaise with him and consult with Canon Alf in St.Wulstan’s to arrange a celebration of Confirmation within the next 12 months.
