Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

27th October 2019

O God, who alone can probe the depths of the heart, you hear the prayer of the humble and justify the repentant sinner.

As we stand before you, grant us the gift of humility,
that we may see our own sins clearly and refrain from judging our neighbour.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

THE WORD AHEAD – Next Sunday’s Gospel

Read –The Gospel for Sunday 3rd November (Luke 19: 1-10) Zacchaeus

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr. Henry Wansbrough’s reflection.

The story of the rich little tax-collector of Jericho is always a favourite. It was a constant complaint of defenders of the Law and its prescriptions that Jesus kept disreputable company – tax-collectors, lepers, Samaritans and prostitutes! He took part in their carousals and seemed to enjoy their company. Tax-collectors are never popular, and everyone thinks they are over-taxed. Under Roman rule the tax-farmers were moral outcasts, especially because they worked for the hated foreign dominators, and surely many added their own percentage to the tax demanded; Jesus does not seem even to mind that they were considered unclean. He does not wait for them to repent and approach him, but positively goes out to them and summons them into his company. Zacchaeus had given no sign of good intentions. This unpopular little man was simply inquisitive, wanting to see what Jesus looked like, not even trying to get near him. One can imagine his open-mouthed and delighted amazement, perched in his sycamore-tree, as Jesus invited himself to supper over the heads of the intervening crowd. ‘Why should Jesus choose me?’ he might be thinking. No conditions are attached; he provides no immediate guarantee of good behaviour or repentance! Yet he is changed fundamentally and responds with generosity. So Jesus draws out our good intentions before we are even really aware of them ourselves.

Jesus invites each of us to welcome him: how do we best respond?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Diary – HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION - FRIDAY 1st

November ALL SAINTS DAY

The work of “Tools with a mission” is to collect tools, and sewing machines, manual only, to service and refurbish them, sort them into trade kits and send them across the world for livelihood creation. We send around 20 containers filled with over 300 tonnes of tools every year.

If you have any tools or a manual sewing machine you would like to donate, please contact Father Christopher Webb OBE on 07775 694702 or 01253 273895 or chris.webb1953@hotmail.co and I will collect them at your convenience. Thank you

No more Red Mill Hill boxes after today – Thank You.
